

Dear Alumni,

We are only a month away from the 2005 Wharton Global Alumni Forum that will take place on June 30th / July 1st at The Ritz–Carlton Hotel in Santiago, Chile.

Dear Alumni,

With anticipation worthy of the honour, we are gearing up to receive Wharton and INSEAD alumni from around the world for this year's Wharton Global Alumni Forum, less than a month away. For those who have not yet had time to register, please be assured that you may still do so on our website www.whartonchile.com, where you will also find all the hotel and air travel information you require.

Members of the organizing committee are preparing round tables, meeting points and introductions for our international guests who wish to make local contacts in different areas of interest, including the retail, telecommunications, mining and private equity sectors. If you wish to take advantage of this offer, please contact us via mail in anticipation of your arrival.

Complementing the interesting lectures and panel discussions are many social activities that have been prepared for alumni and guests. These include the charity raffle that will take place following the closing dinner. All participants will have an opportunity to purchase as many tickets as they desire at a cost of USD 10 or CLP 5.000 throughout the forum. The more tickets you purchase, the greater your philanthropic support, as well as your chances of winning.

The various prizes have been donated by INSEAD and Wharton alumni and friends, and include:

- two executive education courses of one week (from Wharton and INSEAD)
- two bottles of 2002 Clos Apalta wine from Casa Lapostolle Vineyards (ranked recently as the second best wine in the world according to Wine Spectator magazine)
- a case of Nicaraguan rum
- three bottles of Chardonnay 2004 and three bottles of Pinot Noir 2003 from Hamilton Russell Vineyards (South Africa)
- two magnums of 2002 Altaïr, presented in an appointed wooden box signed by the enologist, and three 2002 Sideral bottles, from Altaïr Vineyards
- Cabo de Hornos wines
- Casas del Bosque wines
- whiskies from Johnnie Walker / Diageo

WHARTON GLOBAL ALUMNI FORUM
The Ritz Carlton Hotel, Santiago

Alumni and friends are most welcome to make further donations to the raffle in order to help raise more money for the Akanksha Foundation, a non-profit organization that aims to positively impact the lives of less privileged children in India.

The organizing committee, comprised of Wharton and INSEAD alumni, looks forward to seeing you in Chile.

My Kind Regards,