

Dear Alumni,

The Wharton Global Alumni Forum – Santiago is only 16 days away and we already have a lot of participants and the list is growing. Last week we had an increase of participants of close to 30% (in one week!!), so if you are interested please register as soon as possible, so we can plan everything and be sure to count you in for all the forum activities.

For your guidance the last week in London the new participants increased from close to 200 to nearly 300 with the consequence that the Forum registration had to be closed down as there was no more possibilities for space in the dinners and meetings.

Additional to the interesting lectures and incredible dinners, the forum also includes several tours:

For all participants there is a half day tour to Santiago on Thursday June 30, from 10.30 A.M. to 2.00 PM.

For your guest there is a full day tour to Valparaiso and Viña del Mar during the Forum on Friday July 1st. from 8.30AM to 7.00PM.

For all participants there is a “Wine Train” Tour on Saturday June 2nd. from 8.00 AM to 8.00PM

If you are interested in any of them please contact us so we can include you in the reservation. There are limited spaces and we will accept reservations on a first come first serve basis. Remember the Forum invites so the Tours including the lunches are Free of Charge.

If you haven't registered yet for the forum, you can do so at www.whartonchile.com. Also in the website you can make your room reservations at The Ritz – Carlton Hotel where we have special rates, such as US$ 150 for a room with breakfast included. Where in the world can you sleep in a Ritz Carlton, recently chosen amongst the Best new 5 star hotels in Latin America for such a reasonable rate?

We look forward to seeing you soon.

My kind regards,
